Departure 7:00 pm

The sophisticated Monegasque city state between Italy and France is one of the world's most exclusive addresses. Its densely packed buildings extend up the rocky coastline and gaze out over a gloriously azure sea, with three marinas where spectacular luxury yachts sway on the waves. In the center, set high up, is the beautiful old city of Monaco-Ville with the splendid Prince's Palace, cathedral and Oceanographic Museum of Jacques Cousteau. Epoque building, and the palatial opera house.

Day 2 | St. Tropez, France

Arrival 8:00 am, Departure 11:00 pm

In the 19th century, artists discovered this picturesque fishing village on the Cote d'Azur and made it their source of inspiration. They were followed by the aristocracy and moneyed classes, and around fifty years ago St. Tropez gained its international reputation as a refuge for the rich and famous. You can still find them today, in elegant Port Grimaud with its luxurious yachts from all over the world; in the upmarket bars and restaurants that line the promenade; on the elegant boulevards; in high class shops; or at the sophisticated beach clubs. Even with all these distinguished guests, St. Tropez has still managed to preserve its picturesque and sleepy atmosphere.

Day 3 | Calvi, Corsica

Arrival 2:00 pm

Calvi has something enjoyable to suit every taste. Romantics can take a walk through the old town and the view from the fortified walls is not to be missed. A stroll through the town's streets brings you to the colorful, lively lower town with its bars and exclusive cafes. Anyone who enjoys a walk on the sand will love the town's long beach. To the east, sheltered by the highest mountains in Corsica, a lush green wild garden has grown around Calvi, filled with olive groves and orange trees. In the La Balagne region in the interior, you can discover hidden picturesque villages which show you the traditional side of Corsica and, displaying the idiosyncratic pride on the island, there is scarcely a road sign that is not written in the Corsican language.

Day 4 | Calvi, Corsica

Day 5 | Piombino, Italy

Arrival 8:00 am, Departure 7:00 pm

Piombino, a picturesque town on the Tuscan coast of Italy, is renowned for its rich history and breathtaking scenery. Overlooking the Tyrrhenian Sea, it's a popular destination for visitors seeking the blend of historical charm and natural beauty. The old town, with its narrow streets, historic buildings, and local markets, invites leisurely strolls, while the surrounding beaches and coves are perfect for relaxation and water sports.

Day 6 | Day under full sails

Climbing the rigging, untying ropes, setting sails - today is all about sailing. Time to lean back and relax in the deck chair and watch the passionate crew hoisting the sails by hand.

Day 7 | Salerno, Italy

Arrival 8:00 am, Departure 1:30 pm

With attractions like Pompeii, Vesuvius, and the enchanting Amalfi Coast so close by, Salerno is rarely top of holidaymakers' lists when visiting Italy. Yet the city south of Naples is well worth a visit. The historic center around the Cathedral of San Matteo is the perfect place to drift through narrow streets and soak up the authentic southern Italian flair. Not far away, the Giardino della Minerva herb garden features centuries-old terraces and fragrant medicinal plants. And high above Salerno is the colossal Castello di Arechi with its archaeological museum and panoramic ocean view.

Day 8 | Lipari, Aeolian Islands

Arrival 2:00 pm, Departure 7:00 pm

Lipari is a tranquil little spot and the largest of the Aeolian Islands, with a cultural heritage stretching back over 6,000 years. Right from first glance you can see its volcanic heritage, with some of the rock formations resembling sculptures, and the entire group of islands is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
