

HISTORIC HIGHLAND CASTLES - SCOTLAND CRUISE

From clan seats to royal residences, Scotland has no shortage of stunning and romantic castles and palaces, and the Highlands is home to many. Picturesquely situated and packed with history, they have endured prolific battles and many of those left standing were once home to royals or other significant figures.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Monday 14th July

Kyle of Lochalsh - Embarkation.

Day 2 - Tuesday 15th July

Kyle of Lochalsh - Eilean Donan Castle. Armadale, Skye - Armadale Castle and Clan Donald Centre.

Cameras at the ready for our visit to the iconic Eilean Donan Castle, situated on an island at the point where three great sea lochs meet. Onwards to Armadale, where we discover the epic history of Clan Donald at the Museum of the Isles.

Day 3 - Wednesday 16th July

Tobermory, Mull - Free time to explore at leisure. Craginure, Mull - Duart Castle.

Built as a fishing port in the late 18th century, Tobermory is a picture-postcard town where brightly painted houses line the waterfront.

Visit the ancient seat of Clan Maclean, Duart Castle, which has dominated the view of the Sound of Mull for over 700 years.

Day 4 - Thursday 17th July

Oban - Dunstaffnage Castle. Sail Loch Linnhe to Corpach and transit Neptune's Staircase to Banavie.

From Oban we admire the mighty stronghold of the MacDougalls, Dunstaffnage Castle, where Flora MacDonald was held before being sent to the Tower of London.

Day 5 - Friday 18th July

Cruise the Caledonian Canal to Fort Augustus. Fort Augustus - Urquhart Castle.

Relax on board as we sail Loch Linnhe, passing mysterious Castle Stalker until we reach the Caledonian Canal at Corpach. From Fort Augustus, the magnificent ruins of Urquhart Castle are calling. With 1,000 years of history, Urquhart Castle offers a taste of the Highlands at their most dramatic.

Day 6 - Saturday 19th July

Cruise the Caledonian Canal and Loch Ness. Dochgarroch - Fort George.

Fort George is the mightiest artillery fortification in Britain, created by George II as the ultimate defence against further Jacobite unrest.

Day 7 - Sunday 20th July

Inverness - Cawdor Castle and Gardens. Inverness - Brodie Castle.

From Inverness we travel to the Cawdor Castle, a traditional castle built and inhabited by the Cawdor family for over 600 years; an ancient medieval tower constructed around a legendary holly tree. Finally, we travel to Brodie Castle, renowned for its elegant interiors and a world-famous art collection.

Day 8 - Monday 21st July

Inverness - Disembarkation.

YOUR SHIP: LORD OF THE HIGHLANDS

YOUR SHIP:	Lord Of The Highlands
VESSEL TYPE:	Small Ship
LENGTH:	43 metres
PASSENGER CAPACITY:	19 cabins - 38 passengers
BUILT/REFURBISHED:	2012/2020/2022/23

The challenge as with her sister vessel 'Lord of the Glens' was to craft a vessel that could both transit the intricate waters of the Caledonian Canal as well as navigate the sheltered waters around Scotland's hauntingly beautiful fretted west coast, the result being the splendid 'Lord of the Highlands'. Its elegance calls to mind that of a luxury yacht.

Lord of the Highlands with her convivial company of just 38 guests and a dedicated crew, cruises the historic locks of Scotland's majestic Caledonian Canal. There is a relaxed house party atmosphere on board this small, luxury Scottish cruise ship. Where guests can relax in comfort and style as they discover this most beautiful waterway. Offering a personal service, our crew get to know guests needs and preferences. They are determined to make sure everyone has the best possible time, creating an unforgettable experience, where guests really feel at home.

There are 21 outward facing state cabins spread over two decks each named with references to John Buchan's "THIRTY-NINE STEPS". Each cabin is finished in hardwood finishes, plush carpeting, dressing table, stool, wardrobe, satellite tv, and en suite facilities with shower, wc and washbasin. All state cabins are air conditioned and heated with an internal telephone and picture windows.

The cuisine is excellent, freshly prepared onboard by a loyal and long serving brigade of chefs, drawing on the rich bounty of locally sourced produce. What could be more delightful than to awake to the prospect of a full scottish breakfast and for early risers to take advantage of the complimentary hot beverages that await in the lounge and for that matter for the rest of the day as well?

Everything from tours ashore, to meals and drinks, port taxes and even gratuities are included in the fare you pay. Lord of the Highlands cruises are genuinely fully-inclusive

y-inclusive
