

TENNESSEE RIVERS CRUISE - CRUISE THROUGH THE HIT RECORDING CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Set sail through the storied waters of the Tennessee Valley aboard our modern American Riverboat. Cruise between the Appalachian Mountains and the Land Between the Lakes, a corridor rich in history and musical legacy. This region, once known as "The Hit Recording Capital of the World," produced some of America's most beloved songs.

Visit Nashville, Tennessee, and explore Honky Tonk Highway, where live music fills the air, and visit the Country Music Hall of Fame to celebrate country music legends.

In Chattanooga, discover its pivotal Civil War history with our expert guides, exploring key battle sites from 1863.

Continue to Savannah, near the historic Shiloh National Military Park, preserving a notable Civil War battlefield. Join us to uncover stories of courage, creation, and community at every river bend.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Chattanooga, TN

Included with your cruise is a 1-night Hotel Stay. Upon your arrival, you'll get settled into your hotel to enjoy this city a day before you board a new, modern riverboat.

The city is watched over by the towering Lookout Mountain, a site of the famed "Battle Above the Clouds" during the Civil War, offering panoramic views and tales of strife and strategy. Downtown, the Walnut Street Pedestrian Bridge, one of the world's longest pedestrian bridges, arches over the river, while Coolidge Park, with its classic carousel and many green spaces invites you to enjoy the river's calming flow.

Day 2 - Cruising the Tennessee River

Step aboard and settle in for a calm day as you cruise from Chattanooga through the Appalachian Mountains, following the gentle curves of the river framed by grand scenery. As your journey unfolds, delight in the onboard musicians who fill the air with tunes as timeless as the river itself. Join us for complimentary drinks during our nightly cocktail hours to engage with fellow passengers and our friendly crew, each sharing stories and smiles, enhancing the warmth of your river voyage.

Day 3 - Decatur, AL

Unfolding along the banks of the Tennessee River and serving as a vital hub of activity and culture is the unique port of Decatur. The historic Old State Bank, with its dignified facade, stands as a testament to Alabama's early financial endeavors and its perseverance through economic shifts and the Civil War. Nearby, the Wheeler National Wildlife Refuge provides a sanctuary for an array of migratory birds. Delano Park, one of the city's oldest public spaces, features sprawling green lawns and ancient oaks, offering a peaceful retreat.

Day 4 - Florence, AL

This is a city that blends its historical roots with a lively cultural scene. The iconic Renaissance Tower frames the city, its silhouette prominent against the skyline. The city is renowned for housing the Rosenbaum House, the only Frank Lloyd Wright-designed structure in Alabama, showcasing exceptional Usonian architecture set against a backdrop of native landscapes. Closer to the river, Wilson Park offers serene views and a vintage carousel, embodying the city's dedication to preserving green spaces amidst its urban expansion.

Day 5 - Savannah, TN

On the eastern shores of the Tennessee River, Savannah, resonates with historical significance and captivating scenery. Shiloh National Military Park, the site of a pivotal 1862 Civil War battle, invites exploration with its vivid reenactments and well-preserved trails, painting a vivid tableau of American history. At the heart of Savannah, the Tennessee River Museum offers an engaging chronicle of the river's integral role in shaping regional history, from ancient Native American settlements to the golden age of steamboats.

Day 6 - Paducah, KY

Standing proudly at the confluence of the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers, Paducah is a crossroads of waterways that have shaped its cultural and economic destiny. At the heart of downtown, the National Quilt Museum celebrates Paducah's designation as a UNESCO Creative City of Crafts and Folk Art, showcasing intricate quilts that draw visitors from around the globe.

Day 7 - Cruising Lake Barkley & Cumberland River

Today, cruise through America's Heartland, where the vast Kentucky Lakes and the sprawling 170,000 acres of protected forests are unobstructed to you. Spend a calm day cruising on Lake Barkley, where you can experience expansive views of the Cumberland River from your private balcony or grab a seat and lounge on the open sun deck. Onboard, listen to engaging guest speakers who bring the river to life with stories of history and ecology of the region, or join in a variety of games and activities.

Day 8 - Nashville, TN

Step into the rhythmic heart of Nashville, Tennessee, where every street corner hums with the legacy of musical icons. At the historic Ryman Auditorium, often considered the sacred hall of country music, you can almost hear the twang of Dolly Parton and Hank Williams as you stand in the very spots they once performed. Join us for an unforgettable show at the storied Grand Ole Opry. Nashville is more than a city; it's a living museum of music history, where every melody tells a story, and every building holds a beat.

Day 9 - Nashville, TN

After breakfast onboard the ship, take all you learned along the Tennessee River with you. Reflect on the melodies that filled your days, the stories shared, and the friendships made in this city of music. As you prepare to journey

Fleet of Small Ships

American Cruise Lines offers the newest fleet in America, each ship accommodating just 90 to 180 guests. We offer 6 unique ship styles, including a new class of Patriot Class, Coastal Cats, Classic Paddlewheelers, Constellation Class Ships, Independence Class, and the only modern American Riverboats. We have become the industry leader by continuing to introduce new and innovative ships each year, with the most diverse fleet in the country.

These new ships, built at Chesapeake Shipbuilding in Maryland, are a testament to premier nautical engineering and safety equipment, as well as state-of-the-art navigation. On board a sophisticated aesthetic, an unprecedented level of comfort, the largest staterooms globally, with full private balconies where indicated, and modern accommodations including high-speed internet powered by Starlink.

Our fleet allows us to provide a genuine and customized exploration of areas inaccessible to large ships and crowds, and to explore each region in the most meaningful way possible. With land never out of sight allowing for more time to savor the scenery. Our small ship river cruises offer a more intimate look at American cities from charming small towns to gracious southern ports.
